ABOUT US

Nasseman Art For Transparency (NAFT) is a Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) founded by Mr. Rabbie Nassrallah, popularly known as NASSEMAN, a Global Music Anti-Corruption Ambassador for Transparency International and FairPlay Music. Nasseman Art For Transparency is on a mission to empower young people to raise their voices against corruption and injustice through various artistic mediums such as education, music, art, drama, and films.

We envisioned an informed society about the dangers of corruption and a corruption-free society. Nasseman Art For Transparency (NAFT) is currently running the Nasseman Art for Transparency Anti-Corruption School Education Campaign (NAFT-SEC) - NAFT-SEC aims to educate and raise awareness among 6000 students in 100 schools across Margibi, Montserrado, and Grand Bassa Counties, against corruption and injustice before the end of 2025.

ACTIVITIES

- Engage and educate youth in the fight against corruption
- Recognize the importance of transparency, accountability, and good leadership through campaigns and awareness programs
- Provide educational programs that cover topics from corruption, and child abuse prevention
- Annual anti-corruption music festival and awards program to recognize contributions against corruption
